Hitler May Now Move For Danzig

Diplomats In Conjecture On Next Steps

BERLIN, March 16.—(P)—The chance that Adolf Hitler now might strike swiftly to settle other unfinished Nazi business in Europe was sighted today for foreign diplomatic circles.

Amid the Reichsfuehrer's triumph in breaking up what was left of the Czech-Slovak republic after Munich, these quarters discussed two dominant questions:

1. How soon would Hitler move to return Danzig and Memelland to the lap of "mother Germany?"
2. How quickly would Hitler follow up his regenerated eastern push toward the dream of rich treasures in the Ukraine?

Despite the fact the Fuehrer usually had permitted a lull between successes, there was a chance now that he might reverse the procedure and strike while the iron of an empire-in-the-making was still hot—particularly in the case of Danzig and Memel.

Hitler had spaced out his three latest and greatest successes over slightly more than a year—the annexation of Austria, the absorption of Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland and finally sponsorship of a new Slovak state and a protectorate over the Czech part of the former Czechoslovak republic.

Today his armies were in control in Bohemia and Moravia and on guard in Slovakia. Hungarian forces, with apparent German acquiescence, had marched across Carpatho-Ukraine, the remaining fragment of free Czechoslovakia. Early today the Hungarians established a common frontier with Poland.

Men who have studied the ways of the Czechs' new protector have always noted his disregard of conservative advice and how, despite this, his hunches have worked. They wondered today what was his hunch, if any, on Danzig and Memel.

Are Populous Cities
It was reasonably assumed that those two bits of pre-war Germany were not "vital" in British and French eyes, especially because of their large Germanic populations.

(The Memel territory, 1,099 square miles, population 151,960, was detached from Germany by the Treaty of Versailles, first

New Problem For Refugees

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P)—A new refugee problem, growing out of the dissolution of Czechoslovakia, was added today to the existing struggle to care for German-Jewish refugees. It was estimated that there are 376,000 Jews in Czechoslovakia.

A large portion of Czech Jews, it is believed here, will be required through German pressure to leave Bohemia and Slovakia.

The inter-governmental refugee committee set up in London on the initiative of President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull shortly will see what steps can be taken to aid the Czech Jews.

If Germany absorbs Bohemia and Slovakia politically, the problem will be simplified, because the mandate of the inter-governmental committee covers refugees either in German territory or those who have been obliged to leave German territory.

The United States, however, can give little direct assistance. Contrary to what happened in the case of Germany, whose immigration quota to this country was filled only partly, the Czechoslovakia quota is 99 per cent filled. It totals only 2,874 a year.

Officials here doubt whether much can be done for the Czech Jews until the inter-governmental committee chooses a new homeland from among a number of suggested locations. A committee now is in British Guiana, on the northeast coast of South America, making an investigation with this in mind.

When the new land is decided on, the inter-governmental committee will receive American financial assistance in helping settle the Jews there.

Hotel Manager Shoots Self

ROCKAWAY BEACH, Mo., March 16.—(P)—William Andrews, manager of the Rockaway Beach hotel, was found dead in a bathroom of the hotel Wednesday afternoon, a gaping wound in his chest and a .12 gauge shotgun lying beside him. The body was discovered after his wife heard a shot. A note nearby asked that he be buried in Forsyth, Mr. Andrews had been in poor health several years.

Would Return 'Income' Penny

NEW YORK, March 16.—(P)—That woman who paid the government a penny income tax can call anytime and get her money back.

John McNamara, assistant U. S. internal revenue collector, said the woman, who had an income of about $1,300 laboriously worked over her report yesterday — and figured exemptions reduced her net taxable income to twenty-five cents.

She took four per cent of that, paid a penny and departed in triumph.

McNamara, scanning her report later, said she apparently had misunderstood all the instructions. Had she filled out the return properly, he said, her tax would have amounted to exactly one cent less than she paid.

Doubt On Rigid Economy By U. S. Congress

Difficult To Decide Where To Economize

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P)—Although some revision of business taxes appears highly probable this spring, there were strong indications today the administration's drive to stimulate business activity would stop short of nullifying any New Deal fundamentals.

This was the generally accepted interpretation of the securities commission's rejection late yesterday of proposals by a stock exchange committee for drastic modification of federal securities regulations.

SEC Chairman Douglas told reporters the proposals, in terms of business improvement, were "a phoney" and to open the doors "so the boys up there can have another party isn't going to help at all."

Secretary Morgenthau indicated today the administration's tax revision plan will not be made public until after the first week in April.

The secretary said at a press conference he would have nothing to say about taxes until he testifies before the house ways and means committee, after a two week's vacation he will begin on March 24.

Besides saying that "progress" was being made on the tax program, Morgenthau answered all questions about details with the comment:

"I am not forecasting or broadcasting."

Douglas, statement came in the midst of administration efforts to unify business taxes—without curtailing revenue—as a token of government cooperation with industry.

The president himself has held out three assurances to business: 1. The New Deal program is virtually completed and there will be no new major legislation.

2. No new taxes are contemplated.

3. No new federal expenditures are in prospect.

Administration critics in congress have linked business improvements to federal economy. They have insisted the present level of expenditures be lowered and that business also be encouraged to go forward by modifying corporation levies.

Cull All But Revision And Appropriation Bills

JEFFERSON CITY, March 16.—(P)—A powerful joint committee charted a new course for the general assembly today — a course that may leave scores of pending bills in the discard.

Their progress stopped for the time by the 70-day revision barrier, both chambers awaited the committee's report that will send the law-makers into a legislative field narrowed by the constitution to consideration of appropriation and revision bills and measures specifically recommended by the governor.

This is the first "revision session" under a 1933 constitutional amendment which provides that every ten years the legislature can devote only the first 70 days to new legislation. That deadline came yesterday and a committee of ten senators and representatives took up the task of culling everything but revision and appropriation bills from the over-crowded house and senate calendars.

Many legislators watched the committee anxiously for any hint of the ultimate fate for their pet measures caught in the jumble of incomplete bills. Most of these carried clauses designating them as "revision bills" but the committee

Slash To Half In WPA Rolls By July, 1940

Administrator Questioned On Millions Asked

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P)—Col. F. C. Harrington, administrator, told a house appropriations subcommittee today that WPA rolls probably could be cut in half by July 1, 1940.

Harrington appeared at secret hearings on legislation to give WPA an additional $150,000,000 requested by President Roosevelt for its operations through June 30 this year.

The administrator, members said, also declared that he did not consider the huge relief agency permanent and thought it could be liquidated eventually.

Halving of the relief rolls by the middle of 1940, committeemen indicated, would be predicated upon an increase in private employment. There are about 3,000,000 on WPA rosters now.

The subcommittee decided to recall Harrington for further testimony today and some members said it might be possible to wind up hearings Monday. That would mean no attempt would be made to go into the controversial question of investigating and revamping the whole relief set-up, as some legislators have proposed.

While Harrington was testifying Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) proposed a substitute relief program under which spending would continue at the present rate until June 1 without any further WPA appropriation.

One of the house subcommittee men said David Lasser, head of the Workers' Alliance, a union of WPA workers, was the only outsider who had requested a chance

Fire Destroys A Farm Home

The large home of Mr. and Mrs. William Greenwood, at Dunksburg, known as "The Cedars," one of Pettis county's landmarks, with its furnishings many lovely and valuable antiques, was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon.

The blaze started near the roof and the house and most of its contents were destroyed within a short time. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The house, a spacious frame structure, was built by Mrs. Greenwood's grandfather, the late Dr. Dunkley, for whom the community of Dunksburg was named. After his death it was occupied by his daughter, Mrs. H. Strongsmith and family, and in later years by Mrs. Greenwood and family, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Strongsmith. A sister of Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Belle Corum, who usually resides at the Dunksburg home, was in Sweet Springs, where she is temporarily staying.

Miss Nina Babcock Arrives For Visit

Miss Nina Babcock, of Cedar Springs, Mich., formerly of this city, arrived this afternoon for a visit here with her aunt, Mrs. Kate Slater, and in Higginsville with her sister, Mrs. Edward Felgate.

Miss Babcock, a daughter of the late J. L. Babcock, for many terms mayor of Sedalia, is one of the owners of a weekly newspaper in Cedar Springs. Her mother makes her home with her there.

Local Legion Has Birthday Celebration

Peter O'Brien Is Speaker; Six Past Commanders Present

Local Post No. 16 of the American Legion held its fourth annual birthday celebration at the Sedalia Armory Wednesday night, with the ladies of the Auxiliary giving a banquet in honor of the twentieth anniversary of the American legion. About 125 persons were present.

Peter T. O'Brien, past state commander, talked on the "History of the Legion."

Mrs. Cecil Glenn, head of the local Ladies Auxiliary, introduced Mrs. Truman Rose, of Higginsville, district chairman of the Ladies Auxiliary, who told of the "Birthdays of the Legion."

Six past post commanders attended the banquet and were introduced. They were: Linden Jones, Richard Woods, M. D. Weathers, Peter T. O'Brien, Warren Poindexter and Vernon Glenn.

First Birthday Party

The first birthday celebration was held at the court house four years ago when Richard Woods was post commander. Dan M. Nee, past state commander, made the principal address at that time.

The following musical program was presented last night: A saxophone solo by J. T. Thompson, accompanied by Louis Ott; piano duets by Betty Barnett and Virginia Lindstrom, "Hungarian Dance No. 5" and "Marche Aux Flambeaux;" a tap dance by Linda Jones, accompanied by Harry Maxwell; and a piano solo by Violet Marie Richardson, "Hovering Butterfly."

The late Dr. W. J. Ferguson was first post commander of the American Legion here and Senator Bennett "Champ" Clark of Missouri was the first national commander. Clark was elected chairman at the first meeting and continued in that capacity for the balance of the caucus.

Two Burn To Death In Crash

Two residents of Deerfield, Mo., Vernon County, Victor Funk, 21, and Albert Carlton, 16, were burned to death in a collision of trucks on highway 40, four miles west of Sweet Springs, in front of the Henry Hinck home.

The injured were Kenneth Young, of Deerfield, who has a head injury and a broken arm, and Mike Malo, of Lexington, treated by a physician who said he "might have concussion of the brain."

Mallo died later of his injuries. Young was treated by a physician in Sweet Springs, then taken in an ambulance to the Fitzgibbon hospital, Marshall, where today his condition is said to be fair.

The truck, driven by Young, owned by John D. Funk of Deerfield, was a trailer truck loaded with cedar posts, going east, and the Malo truck, a small pickup truck loaded with beer, was going west. The collision was head-on, and the larger truck went into a ditch, turned over, a sixty gallon tank of gasoline exploding. The bodies were burned beyond recognition.

Coalition For France Talked

Formidable Front Toward Germany Is Suggested

PARIS, March 16.—(P)—Agitation appeared to be increasing in France today for a coalition government of all parties which would present a strong front toward Germany, conqueror of France's one-time ally, Czechoslovakia.

Full realization that the bloodless conquest made Adolf Hitler the dominant power of Central Europe seemed to strike like a sudden blow.

French observers last week were talking of friendship with Germany and the possibility of a general European peace agreement. Today they were referring to Germany as an eternal enemy of peace.

Premier Edouard Daladier called his cabinet to meet with President Albert Lebrun tomorrow morning to discuss the situation resulting from German absorption of Bohemia and Moravia.

A report by the senate aviation committee urging immediate steps to increase French facilities for manufacturing warplanes also will be discussed.

Even in the demand among all political groups for a national union government were evidences of a split. A powerful Socialist-Communist bloc supported by several independent Nationalists, demanded that the Daladier-Bonnet government be overthrown at once as responsible for the diplomacy which lulled France into a feeling of false security.

Rightist groups insisted that all parties must unite behind the present government, contending that Premier Daladier was the only man strong enough to keep France on even keel.

There was some indication the Socialists and Communists might be won over to Daladier, if he ousted Foreign Minister Bonnet and enlarged his cabinet to their advantage.

An attack on Bonnet was opened yesterday at a chamber of deputies foreign affairs committee meeting.

French hopes of security now rest mainly on the alliance with Britain and, with Bonnet admitting that his post-Munich policy was in collapse, French diplomacy seemed to be shaping along these two lines:

To try to promote a Soviet Russia-Polish alliance, strengthening treaties France already has with those powers. (Poland now has a non-aggression agreement with Germany also but French believe Warsaw is watching Nazi sweep westward with misgivings.)

Second, to try to win Italian friendship in the hope Italy will join the French-British bloc and lessen cooperation with Germany.

Declines To Turn Over Legation

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P)—Vladimir S. Hurben, Czechoslovak minister, declined today to turn over the legation here to German representatives until he had received written orders from Prague.

He issued this statement: "The first secretary of the German embassy, Dr. Karl Resenberg, came to see me and read to me an order from the German foreign office asking the German embassy to take over the Czechoslovak legation and consulate."

"My reply was: 'I have not received any order from my government in Prague which appointed me—the only authority which could issue such an order to me. I must have a written—not telegraphic—document, signed by President Hacha, stating that the Czechoslovak government of its own will relinquished its authority to the German reich.'"

A German official said Hacha or the former Foreign Minister Chvalkovsky would be asked at once to send the necessary instructions.

Chust Occupied By Hungarian Troops Today

Bitter Battle Is Waged Near That Objective

LONDON, March 16.—(P)—A British News Agency (Reuters) dispatch from Budapest reported that the Hungarian army had occupied Chust, capital of annexed Carpatho-Ukraine, at 7 p. m. (noon CST) tonight.

Earlier reports told of bitter fighting near Chust, where Czechs and Ukrainians held a formidable trench and barbed-wire system against the Hungarians taking possession of the easternmost section of broken Czechoslovakia.

Had Bitter Battle.

By ROBERT B. PARKER, JR. WITH HUNGARIAN ARMY IN CARPATHO-UKRAINE, March 16.—(P)—Hungary's army of occupation today encountered bitter resistance from Czech and Ukrainian nationalist forces determined to make a last ditch stand against annexation of the mountainous Carpatho-Ukraine, which was Czechoslovakia's eastern outpost.

Defending forces were entrenched seven miles west of Chust, the regional capital, where Czech and Ukrainian fighters stubbornly met a Hungarian charge after a brief artillery bombardment. Fighting was continuing.

Snipers, pledged to die defending their rugged country, harassed every moment of the invaders. A Hungarian officer said that before noon 100 Hungarians had been killed or wounded in the battle.

He declared severe losses had been inflicted on Czech forces resisting Hungary's invasion of the easternmost section of broken Czechoslovakia.

(Dispatches from Bucharest said Premier Augustin Volosin of Carpatho-Ukraine had fled into Rumania and that confusion prevailed in Chust, the regional capital.)

Encounter Entanglements

Shortly before noon Hungarian troops, advancing to carry out the Budapest government's decree of annexation, encountered trenches and barbed wire entanglements which were being defended by Czech troops and Ukrainian forces.

Hungarian infantrymen, after a brief bombardment of the trench positions with field artillery, charged the trenches with fixed bayonets at 1:15 p. m. (7:15 a. m. EST).

An hour later the issue of the battle was still uncertain. Marching through snow and harassed by snipers hidden in the

The meetings will begin at 7:30 o'clock, the first ward at Mark Twain school, second ward at Jefferson school, third ward at Washington school and fourth ward at Broadway school.

'Castle's For Sale,' Death Valley Scotty Declares

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—(P) The castle is for sale, says Death Valley Scotty.

Penetrating blue eyes twinkled through slits of squinted lids today as the Monte Cristo of the desert punctuated his momentous statement by forking a fried oyster.

"Death Valley's gone to hell," he said with deliberation. "I didn't utter give you no grace. I wolved out of its traps. I fought the devil with fire—and fire-water. Snakes bit and injuns shot me. But them days is gone. It's a government park now. They wheel in there with baby carriages like on city streets. You can't sit down in the rocks without a ranger at your elbow. Tourists swarm around like gnats about a burro's tail at a water-hole on a hot day."

"You uster smell bacon and beans of a prospector's campfire, and hear mules abrayin'. Now the odor is French cookin', and steaming tea kettles honk around filled with tin-horn beauties. Why they've even taught the injuns to use powderpuffs!"

"The castle's my monument. It'll be there long after I've gone."

Hitler Gives Law To Bohemia-Moravia

Charred Body In Ruins Of Cabin

WILLIAMSVILLE, Mo., March 16.—(P)—The charred body of a man, believed to be that of Harley Wilmore, 50 year old world war veteran, was found in the fire ruins of a little cabin where he lived alone in the woods near here late yesterday.

Today Sheriff C. L. Rubottom and Prosecuting Attorney Roy W. McGee were investigating the case in an effort to determine if death was accidental.

Wilmore was last seen here on March 2 and officers are of the opinion his cabin burned a few days later.

Advise Holding Of Shipments For The Czechs

Regulations On Exports To Now Be More Rigid

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P)—The commerce department advised all American exporters today to stop shipments to Czechoslovakia until the situation there clears up.

In the case of shipments already on the ocean, the department suggested exporters hold the goods at European ports.

The department pointed out exporters face the possibility of restricted exchange resulting from German domination of the collapsed republic.

In Germany itself foreign exchange payments are rigidly restricted, and if the same procedure is applied to Czechoslovakia American exporters might have difficulty in getting paid for any merchandise sent now.

"In view of developments in Czechoslovakia during the past few days the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce has informed its district and cooperative offices to advise American exporters to hold shipments destined for that country at European ports until the situation clears."

"While payments for merchandise imports have been controlled by the Czechoslovak government for some time it is expected that the regulations will now be more rigid."

Report Mrs. Ryan To Surrender

KANSAS CITY, March 16.—United States Marshal Henry L. Dillingham said today he had "information" Mrs. Frances S. Ryan, leader of Boss Tom Pendergast's Democratic forces in the twelfth ward, would surrender at the Alderson, W. Va., federal reformatory instead of to federal officers here to begin serving a three-year sentence for vote fraud conspiracy.

Dillingham said Mrs. Ryan, whose plea for probation was denied Monday, must surrender at Alderson by midnight tomorrow night or here by 4:30 p. m. tomorrow.

If the ward leader surrenders at Alderson, that institution will be designated by the attorney general as the place where her sentence is to be served. Should she surrender here, Dillingham said he would be required to hold her in the county jail until a place of confinement was designated.

I built it fer that, like the old faraways built the pyramids, only when some one starts diggin' around a couple of thousand years from now they ain't gonna find me wrapped in sacks with my gold or jewels around, like they did that feller two-tank-atom down by the Nile.

"Now git this! The castle's fer sale. Wadda I want fer it? Wal, it cost $2,381,000. But the question ain't what it cost, but what's it worth to anyone who wants to buy it. That's what we gotta see. That's about 12,000 acres, with a 22 mile $80,000 fence around the rocks."

The smiling old mystery prospector lapsed into silence. For more than fifty years he has been a figure in Death Valley. He loves every rock of it. But he is a lobo wolf. A short time with the crowds suffices. He likes to be alone. It is getting too crowded in Death Valley.

The mystery desert rat is ready to turn his back on the place he made famous.

His partner, Albert W. Johnson, co-owner of the castle, said: "Yes, it's true. Whatever Scott says goes."

Protectorate In Nazi Expansion Established

By The Associated Press

PRAGUE, March 16.—Adolf Hitler today took Slovakia under the protection of his rapidly expanding empire, laid down German law for Bohemia-Moravia and then left Prague with an escort of armored automobiles.

The fuehrer of Germany and the protector of the Czechs had been in Prague for 22 hours during which he did not leave ancient Hradecany castle. It had been turned into a veritable fortress.

Hitler's open automobile crossed the historic Charles bridge late in the afternoon in the direction of Bruenn (Brno), 116 miles southeast of Prague, on the road to Bratislava. He was expected in Bruenn tonight.

He was followed by automobiles bearing standing blackshirt troops of his elite guard and by cars carrying Joachim von Ribbentrop, his foreign minister; German generals and Nazi party leaders.

During his stay in the historic castle which had been the residence of crushed Czechoslovakia's presidents, Hitler had had virtually no contact with the Czech people.

Several hundred Germans stood throughout the day outside the thick walls of the castle but only a group of Hitler youth and a few other Germans were permitted beyond its gates to the completely enclosed first courtyard.

Hitler came to a balcony overlooking the courtyard to receive their salute.

The Jewish community of Prague was in panic and an undetermined number of suicides was reported as an aftermath to the dissolution of the Czechoslovak republic.

Funds of the Jewish community were seized, halting Jewish relief work. Organization for Jewish emigration, "Hicem," was closed. Hundreds of persons stood outside the British consulate, shouting "We want to get away!"

As German rule encompassed those two parts of broken Czechoslovakia, the third, Carpatho-Ukraine, disappeared from the European map by annexation to Hungary.

In a decree issued from Hradecany castle of Prague, the German chancellor charted the future of the ancient lands of Bohemia and Moravia as that of "an autonomous protectorate" within greater Germany.

He showed himself on the castle

Talk On Ireland To Kiwanians

In observance of St. Patrick's Day, Sedalia Kiwanians had as guest speaker at their meeting this noon, Rev. Fr. W. J. McGrane, of St. Patrick's Catholic church, who spoke on "Ireland and St. Patrick."

The speaker told of the early history of Ireland much of which he learned from his grandfather, a native of the island. He told of the migration of a tribe from Asia Minor, carrying the benediction of Moses, through Africa, Gaul and thence to the mystic Emerald Island where the natives were subsequently conquered. Moses was supposed to have used his rod in curing a chieftain's son of a snake bite and from this incident and Moses' benefactions, was created the emblem of the rod and snake.</

One In Every Nine

A census bureau analysis indicates that of every nine people employed, one is on a government payroll. And they draw about one-eighth of all salaries and wages in the country.

About a third of this army of public employees are on the federal payroll (work relief not included). Another third are in schools or educational systems, and the other third is divided among state, county, and municipal jobs.

The easy thing is to deplore all this, and wonder "whither are we drifting."

But the scientific thing would be for somebody to find out how many functions, how much work, is now being done by governments which people used to do for themselves. If the amount of work is about in proportion to the people employed, the whole thing becomes inevitable.

Obviously, however, there comes a point in this trend when those not on the public payroll become utterly unable to support those who are on it.

And the only way to fend off that unhappy development is to begin making some of our government services pay their own way just as any private enterprise does.

State And Nations

The proposal now before the New York legislature to require on all imported articles certain conspicuous markings of the country of origin, ought to be most carefully considered.

Superficially, it looks harmless. But there is already a federal law making similar requirements. And if each state now begins to make further, additional, and differing requirements as to marking products which they will receive, confusion will soon be complete.

Without going into the constitutionality of such a law, which is doubtful to begin with, it is certainly unwise to set up 48 sets of regulations with which foreign countries must comply, 48 different kinds of markings which must be put on imported articles in accordance with which state is their ultimate destination.

The tendency today ought to be toward simplifying all these relationships, already too complicated. Certainly one unified import law ought to apply to the entire country.

England has 15 lord mayors.

So They Say

We will demonstrate how our nation, cut off completely from the seven seas, having no colonies, and being practically deprived of raw materials, marches abreast of other nations by virtue of initiative, creative spirit, and hard work.—Dr. Victor Nef, in charge of the Swiss exhibit at the New York Fair.

Now I have no home—I must begin life anew.—Charles M. Schwab, multimillionaire steel magnate, a widower at 77.

All this rubbish about sex display at our fair is in violent opposition to our hopes and plans.—Grover Whalen, New York World's Fair president.

A scientific report is never derogatory.—Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

My sympathies are entirely with the Jews, but my sympathy does not blind me to the requirements of justice.—Mohandas K. Gandhi, Indian "saint," on the Palestine question.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen

WASHINGTON—The Dies un-Americanism committee has just obtained the most sensational information on Nazi and Communist activities in the United States so far unearthed. Among the secret evidence is proof that:

Bund officials received several million dollars from Germany to finance Nazi organizations and camps in this country. The committee has the facts to show that in one instance $75,000 was transmitted through a Berlin bank to establish a Bund camp near Jersey City, N. J.

That a large part of the undercover propaganda money from Germany was handled by Nazi officials in this country. Some of the evidence directly implicates the German Embassy in Washington.

That the Nazi hierarchy in Berlin has a secret fund earmarked specifically for the military training of pro-Hitler Americans and for financing propaganda by public officials who are Nazi-minded.

That the Communists have been sending picked American Negroes to Russia, where they are elaborately entertained and then sent back to this country to picture the Soviet to their race as an economic fairyland.

The committee has the names of the Negroes and the dates of their secret excursions to Russia. According to this evidence, they were shipped to France, then taken into Russia without visas so as to make it appear that they remained in France all the time they were abroad.

Hotel Strike
The big Capital hotel strike not only caused the White House Correspondents to cancel their annual banquet to the President, but also gave headaches to a lot of labor-sensitive officials.

Ninety-five Senators and Congressmen plus scores of other notables were living in the thirteen hotels when the strike broke. Some, such as Senator Carter Glass, Senator J. "Ham" Lewis, Representative Ralph Brewster of Maine and Representative Dondero of Michigan had no qualms about walking through the picket lines. But others dashed madly about town looking for other living quarters.

Senator Bob Wagner, author of the Labor Relations Act, checked out of his hotel, though he has lived there for years. So did Representative Franck Havenner, who is planning to run for mayor of San Francisco this year with labor backing, and Vito Marcantonio, scrappy standard bearer of New York's American Labor Party.

Another celebrity who refused to cross the picket line was Katharine Hepburn, famed movie star who was playing in the stage play "The Philadelphia Story." She left her hotel and went to a private home.

Two amusing incidents of the strike were a telegram which labor constituents of Representative Eaton of California sent the embattled AFL union, inquiring whether he was breaking the picket lines; and the refusal of John R. Steelman, head of the Labor Department's Conciliation Division, who was trying to settle the strike, to move out of his struck hotel.

CIO Windfall
The hotel strike was a windfall to the CIO, which was not involved, but put on a big demonstration of solidarity with the AFL strikers.

The Washington local of the CIO United Shoe Workers volunteered to repair free the shoes of pickets, while the CIO Union Council offered funds and pickets. Philip Murray and Sidney Hillman, national CIO vice presidents, immediately left their hotels when they learned about the strike, Murray lugging his suitcase down four flights of stairs rather than call for a non-union bellboy and elevator operator.

Hillman first discovered the strike at breakfast, when he noticed that the head waiter was serving him.

"To what do I owe this honor?" he asked.

Told what had happened, Hillman rose, paid his bill and left, saying, "There'll be no breakfast for me here."

Ambassador Claude Bowers will go back to Spain, but only to pack his shirts and collars. If the State Department had followed his advice, he would probably still be in Spain, and Spain still would be a bulwark against Nazi-Fascism in Europe.

The Forgotten Word

Thursday, March 16. And here in I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God and men. Read Acts 24:10-16.

The very word conscience seems now a forgotten word; a ghost of a word. We too largely subject our enterprise to every test save those tests of right and wrong to which everything comes in the end.

We need to return to foundation thing: A "good conscience" is surely one of them. A good conscience is sensitive, sympathetic, teachable. It is always excellent chance to lick him. . . . Dies committee investigators have received information that the Nazi Bund recently directed its Pacific Coast satellites to launch a wave of attacks on the Catholic church, in an effort to win favor among Protestant clergymen. According to the secret data a "Dr. Joe Jeffers, founder and pastor of Kingdom Temple in Los Angeles, will head the anti-Catholic movement. Jeffers visited Germany last summer and has made a number of speeches attacking Jews.

SERIAL STORY

WOMEN WANT BEAUTY!

BY LOUISE HOLMES

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday: Once back in River-town, Susie discloses her identity to Dick. He seems pleased with her achievement.

CHAPTER XXVIII

"I WANT to see Mr. Costello," Susie said to Dick. "He was my boss for five years." Dick went with her to the Waffle Shoppe office, enjoying the vicarious thrill of Susie.

"Hello, Mr. Costello," she said from the door of his office. "Don't you remember Susie?"

He gulped and stared, he scrambled from his chair. He shook Susie's hand and made her turn around while he uttered soft ejaculations in Italian. Susie introduced Dick and Mr. Costello spoke to him without taking his eyes from her slim loveliness. Somehow the word got around. Waitresses flocked to the office, cooks came from the kitchen, the cash register was deserted. A brass band was the only thing lacking in Susie's welcome.

Dick, standing back from the crowd, said to himself, "She'll be a sensation in Hollywood. It takes that kind of nerve in Hollywood." Suzanne, in private life Mrs. Richard Tremaine, would make a lot of money and her husband would help spend it.

In a rush Susie dressed for the Delta Phi dinner. Powder blue velvet, long, accentuating every beautiful line of her figure, bobbing curls on top of her head, heavy silver bracelets, small silver sandals, perfume behind her ears, stars in her eyes.

Dick waited in the lobby while she called Chicago. There was no answer from Jeff's apartment. She was quiet on the way to the fraternity house, thinking of Jeff, wishing she had been kinder.

Susie's fame had spread. Her entrance to the Delta Phi house received the fanfare accorded to royalty. It took little to stir university students. They owned Susie, had she not served them all with delicious waffles? Now she had returned, beautiful, a radio star, to honor their door. Or so their greeting broadly hinted.

ANOTHER reception was held in the dressing room. Susie remembered fleetingly the occasion of her last entrance into that room. It was much the same, smooth, luxurious little girls, the type she had so bitterly envied, but with a difference this time. They neither snickered nor whispered. They shook Susie's hand, exclaimed over her clothes, crowded around as she sat at the dressing table. In 10 minutes that scarring episode in Susie's past was wiped from the slate of memory. The Cinderella complex even gave it a touch of glamour.

The strange thing about it all was that Susie was not getting the expected thrill out of the demonstration. Knowing that, without a shadow of doubt, Dick Tremaine would ask her to marry him before the evening was over, knowing that poor old Susie, the waffer, was buried for all time, her senses absolutely refused to quicken. What was the matter with her? Was achievement less sweet than effort, had conquest dulled the keen edge of desire? She did not know. Slipping away from the gushing, fawning girls, she found an upstairs telephone and again called Jeff's flat in Chicago. There was no answer.

The party ran true to time-honored form. Dinner, dancing, the stag line falling over itself to cut in on Susie, favors, paid entertainment.

During the entertainment Dick took Susie to a seat under the stairs. He had been a little cocky all evening, swaggering possessively, strutting just enough to irritate Susie faintly. "As if he owned me," she thought.

There, under the stairs, no one in sight, he asked her, quite casually, to marry him at the end of her radio contract. In the same breath he explained that his father had put him on his own, that one needed money to swing out in California and it would be wise for her to accept Ted Warfield's offer. When Susie said nothing, sat with troubled eyes on her hands, he added that he was mad about her, always had been and always would be, that, together, they would out-Hollywood Hollywood.

IT was incredible that Susie should say, "But I don't want to marry you, Dick—I don't want to go to Hollywood." Incredible, after loving Dick for years on end, after hitching her wagon to his star and hanging on for all this time. Refusing him, Susie was almost as astounded as Dick.

When argument failed, when even caustic reminders of his enviable social standing were unavailing, Dick sullenly took her to the hotel and she did another astounding thing. Starting to prepare for bed she changed her and in so many ways, we fear or forget to ask what is right. Recall us to goodness and so illumine our thoughts by Thy clear light, that we may discover in our sense of duty the vision of better lives for each one of us and a happier human fellowship for us all. We ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.

balcony to the cheers of German university students and then left Prague by automobile for an undisclosed destination.

Hitler laid down the new fundamental law for the country of 7,000,000 Czechs a day after he had sped into the capital of the crushed Czechoslovak federation behind the wheels of his motorized army.

German protection of Slovakia answered the appeal of Dr. Joseph Tiso, who declared the independence from Prague of the little country Tuesday under Hitler's guidance and promise of support. Thus, 14,600 square miles and 2,450,000 more of the population of central Europe became German ruled.

The fuhrer acted barely two hours after his foreign minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, had broadcast the decree for future rule over Bohemia and Moravia.

Bitter Fighting Waged

Bitter trench fighting between Hungarians moving across Carpatho-Ukraine and Ukrainians, meanwhile, left an estimated 100 dead and wounded in the eastern end of the former Czechoslovak state.

Augustin Volosin, former Carpatho-Ukraine premier, who sent his appeals too late to Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini of Italy, the only two men who might have stayed Hungary's hand fled to Rumania.

A day before Hitler agreed to make Slovakia's people subjects of a German protectorate, his gray-clad legions had entered their country just as they did Bohemia-Moravia.

It was assumed now they would carry out the same duties in the Slovak protectorate which German forces have undertaken in Bohemia-Moravia.

Hacha had in his hand the text of the decree explaining the protectorate for Bohemia-Moravia—a setup which now may be duplicated in Slovakia.

The decree made clear to the Slavic peoples there will be two classes within the protectorates—a preferred class, the Germans, who will have all the rights and privileges of citizens of Germany, and a class of non-German who will be subjects of the protectorate.

They learned, further, their army, foreign policy, railways and other communications, post office, telegraph and telephone services will be run by their powerful protector and they will have nothing to say in these matters.

Although Hitler's decree made all the quarter million Germans within the protectorate German citizens, this was subject to the provisions of the Nuremberg racial (anti-Jewish) and other German laws. In other words, German Jews can not be citizens.

"The protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia is autonomous and administers its own affairs the decree continued.

"It exercises sovereign rights appertaining to a protectorate in harmony with the political, military and economic interests of the reich."

The German fuhrer decree that the head of the autonomous administration should enjoy all pro-

First Ambassador Of U. S. To Panama

William Dawson, of Minnesota, now United States minister to Uruguay, was named first United States ambassador to Panama by President Roosevelt, as Panama was elevated from a ministry to an embassy.

Most of them spent yesterday and last night scrambling to find trains out of the country. No trains ran until late afternoon. No passenger airlines operated.

Jews and German political emigrants found frontiers closed to them. Most of them learned too late that the German army was coming.

any real economy this session. Democratic Leader Barkley of the senate said today there was general agreement on the principle of economizing but none could decide where practically it might be applied.

Advocates of tax revision studied treasury estimates that revenues on 1938 incomes would be substantially less than those for 1937.

Budget experts forecast upwards of $425,000,000 will have been collected in March this year compared with collections of $723,000,000 in March a year ago.

Secretary Morgenthau expects to make recommendations for revision of corporation taxes after review of corporation taxes after March 15 returns are analyzed.

Since President Roosevelt has laid down the rule that as far as he is concerned revisions must not reduce revenues, some taxes may have to be compensatingly increased.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) of the senate finance committee said yesterday he did not believe such increases would carry the 19 percent maximum of present corporation taxes up to more than 22 percent.

He said this estimate contemplated abandoning present taxes on capital stocks, excess profits and undistributed profits and substituting a flat corporation income tax.

The finance committee chairman and Rep. Coper (D-Tenn) conferred with President Roosevelt yesterday and expect to go to the White House again when studies of March 15 returns are completed.

Harrison reported a spirit of cooperation among officials in efforts to smooth out business taxes and predicted eventually levies which might deter business activity would be removed.

Gen. Blaskowitz

Gen. List

Leading Germany's army into the Czech provinces of Bohemia and Moravia were General Kesselring, chief of the Berlin air division, General Wilhelm List, in charge of infantry and General Johannes Blaskowitz. The latter was named "supreme authority" in economic and military resources. He reached the capital unobtrusively last night during a blizzard, following quickly after his army. The army, instead of the flow-ers and kisses they received in Sudetenland, got boos and hisses from Czechs on the streets but there was no great disorder. Because of this, great interest was apparent over the reception for Hitler.

Bohemia, which includes Prague, while General List received the same post in Moravia. They rank over civil administrators.

Hitler named Konrad Henlein, the Sudeten Nazi leader, to be civil administrator for Bohemia. General Johannes Blaskowitz, commander of group three of the German army, was named military ruler.

Moravia's executive power was placed in the hands of General Wilhelm List, commander of the fifth army group stationed in Vienna, and Moravian civil administration was vested in Joseph Buerckel, Hitler's commissioner in Austria.

Troops and police in armored cars patrolled deserted streets throughout the night. Only an occasional civilian who possessed a military pass could be seen after 9 p. m., the curfew hour.

The Nazi occupation found many foreign buyers here for the Prague spring fair, including a half dozen Americans and Canadians.

Most of them spent yesterday and last night scrambling to find trains out of the country. No trains ran until late afternoon. No passenger airlines operated.

Jews and German political emigrants found frontiers closed to them. Most of them learned too late that the German army was coming.

any real economy this session. Democratic Leader Barkley of the senate said today there was general agreement on the principle of economizing but none could decide where practically it might be applied.

Advocates of tax revision studied treasury estimates that revenues on 1938 incomes would be substantially less than those for 1937.

Budget experts forecast upwards of $425,000,000 will have been collected in March this year compared with collections of $723,000,000 in March a year ago.

Secretary Morgenthau expects to make recommendations for revision of corporation taxes after review of corporation taxes after March 15 returns are analyzed.

Since President Roosevelt has laid down the rule that as far as he is concerned revisions must not reduce revenues, some taxes may have to be compensatingly increased.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) of the senate finance committee said yesterday he did not believe such increases would carry the 19 percent maximum of present corporation taxes up to more than 22 percent.

He said this estimate contemplated abandoning present taxes on capital stocks, excess profits and undistributed profits and substituting a flat corporation income tax.

The finance committee chairman and Rep. Coper (D-Tenn) conferred with President Roosevelt yesterday and expect to go to the White House again when studies of March 15 returns are completed.

Harrison reported a spirit of cooperation among officials in efforts to smooth out business taxes and predicted eventually levies which might deter business activity would be removed.

Joint Sessions For Two Extension Clubs

The Maplewood and Champion College Extension Clubs will meet in joint session at the home of Mrs. Luther Landis, Southview Place, Tuesday, March 21.

The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock, and members are asked to be on time.

A very interesting program will be given in the afternoon.

Charles Arnest Not In Race For Alderman

Charles Arnest, who was mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination from the third ward, stated this afternoon that he is not in the race.

He would not accept the nomination if offered, and that he did not authorize any delegation to use his name.

Slash To Half In WPA Rolls By July, 1940

to testify on the $150,000,000 relief item.

Compromise Possible

While "no meeting of minds" has occurred in the subcommittee, one Democrat said that the "psychology" of the hearings indicated that perhaps some sort of compromise would evolve.

He said it might be that the subcommittee would shave $25,000,000 from the total the president asked but venture the opinion the slash would not be as great as $50,000,000.

By making some reduction, this member indicated, some concession would be made that would help "save faces" of members of the economy bloc, which forced through congress the original $150,000,000 reduction in the president's estimate of relief requirements up to June 30.

Vandenberg offered a bill authorizing the president to continue spending from the recently-voted $725,000,000 WPA appropriation at the current rate. The fund would last until June 1 under such an arrangement, Vandenberg said.

"That would give congress two and a half months to study the entire relief problem and to consider setting up some system to replace that now in operation," the Michigan Republican said. "It also would eliminate the present need of appropriating an additional $150,000,000."

President Roosevelt requested a supplemental $150,000,000 appropriation to continue WPA operations through June 30. The chief executive said a sharp reduction of WPA rolls on April 1 would be necessary unless the additional sum were provided.

Mr. Roosevelt asked $875,000,000 for WPA in January, but congress voted only $725,000,000.

Other developments in Washington today:

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace told a senate banking subcommittee that continuance of President Roosevelt's monetary powers were preparedness for "armed conflict among currencies of the world."

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau indicated that the administration's tax revision plan would not be made public until after the first week of April.

House Sanctions Raise To Judges

(AP)—The house abandoned its economy mood completely today and approved by two-to-one majorities measures to hike salaries of rural circuit judges and county school superintendents.

A bill of Rep. H. P. Lauf (D), Jefferson City, which would give judges in circuits having more than one county $1,300 a year additional for service as jury commissioners, was reconsidered and perfected 72 to 37. The proposal had been rejected Tuesday.

Judges in these circuits now receive $4,700. Majority Floor Leader Roy Hamlin (D), Hannibal, said the proposed total compensation of $6,000 was not excessive since circuit jurists in the large cities receive $8,000.

"In my circuit, the judge does just as much work as those in St. Louis or Kansas City," he asserted.

The bill to raise the pay of school superintendents, introduced by Rep. John D. Taylor (D), Keytesville, passed 72 to 30. Taylor's original bill called for increases ranging from $480 to $1,800 a year based on population but he accepted an amendment of Rep. Roscoe Summers (D), Cass county, making the top limit $1,500.

One protest was raised by Rep. J. B. Herford (R), Ozark county. "You city fellows have been telling us how much more money you need for schools and other things," he said. "Now if you'll just join with us hillbillies, we'll vote down this bill and save some money so you can have some."

"I ran on an economy platform and I think a lot of the rest of you did too. It's not going to look so good when word gets back to the home folks of what we're doing up here to raise expenses."

mountains, the Hungarians had made steady progress until they were held up by the trench system.

The infantry had paused while light artillery opened fire. Heavy artillery, still far back along the snowy roads leading to Chust, was being hurried to the front.

Increasing numbers of Hungarian troops were pouring into the region and it seemed only a matter of time before resistance on the front west of Chust would be overcome.

An hour before charging the trench lines, Hungarians took the town of Varos Mart after a short machine-gun battle.

They immediately pressed eastward. About a mile beyond Varos Mart, a Czech plane coming from the direction of Chust swooped down and machine-gunned Hungarian columns moving along the highway.

Heavy fire from anti-aircraft batteries and machine-guns drove off the plane.

There appeared to be no planes aiding Hungary's troops.

Hungarians estimated they were being opposed by about 5,000 men, many of them embittered Czechs and Ukrainians determined to make a last-ditch stand.

As ambulances streamed back from the front, Hungarians attributed their losses to the desperate character of a small band of "sitch" guardsmen taking reckless chances as snipers.

Most of the "sitch" guards, who had hoped to create a separate Ukrainian state below the Carpathian Mountains, are sworn to die resisting Hungary.

Advancing on winding roads below cliffs and high mountains, the Hungarian forces were particularly vulnerable to sniping from rocky ledges and inaccessible peaks.

Suit On Account In Circuit Court

A suit on account was filed in the circuit court today by Ray B. Lucas, superintendent of insurance of the State of Missouri, in charge of the assets of Manufacturing Lumbermen's Underwriters, a defunct Reciprocal Insurance Exchange, against M. C. Rodgers.

The plaintiff company asks for $386.64 alleged due for premiums he has retained and for $327.56 amount of return commission alleged due.

Lamm and Barnett are local attorneys for the plaintiff company.

Business Upturn Is Predicted

(AP)—A somewhat greater than seasonal rise in business activity, the bureau of agricultural economics said today, may be expected this spring and this summer.

In its current demand and price situation report, the bureau said an anticipated increase in government expenditures should furnish the stimulus for the upturn.

placed under control of a conference of ambassadors but finally handed over to Lithuania February 16, 1923. Memel retained a large autonomy.

(The free city of Danzig, 754 square miles, population 407,000, was taken from Germany at Versailles, placed under the protection of the League of Nations and made a unit in the Polish customs administration. It and Gdynia are Poland's sea outlets.)

Britain and France merely made inquiries regarding Germany's annexation of 7,000,000 Czechs in the present instance so it was argued that little Lithuania scarcely could dare to challenge German "protection" for Memel.

SUNDAY DINNER

By CORA ANTHONY
Director of A&P Kitchen

NEW fresh asparagus is arriving in small quantity but more favorable weather will be needed before most of us can enjoy it. Hothouse rhubarb is not expensive and could well be on every menu once in the early spring, if only for its color. Pineapple is beginning to be plentiful, its chief season continuing from March through June. Fresh pineapple has an aroma that is delightful and it, too, should be served in season. It is troublesome to prepare but inexpensive and keeps well in the refrigerator. Poultry, eggs, butter, cheese and lamb represent the best values in protein-rich foods.

Iceberg lettuce and green beans are high, otherwise the vegetable market is little changed.

This four-pound pork rib roast was roasted in a slow oven (325 F.) for about two and a half hours. The whole potatoes and 1-inch slices of onion were brushed with the meat drippings and baked in the pan with the roast for about an hour. A green salad and fruit dessert complete the meal.

"Enriched With Milk" QUAKER MACARONI For Your Table Now

All Central Missouri Is Stocked With New Quality Quaker Oat Company Product

The consumer acceptance of Quaker Oats into thousands of Sedalia and Central Missouri homes as evidenced by the amazing response to The Democrat-Capital Betty Lou spoon coupons accounts for the Quaker Oats Company's introduction to the consumers of this market The New Quaker Macaroni, "enriched with milk."

This Quick-Cooking Macaroni contains milk. Housewives will find a pleasant discovery in the difference in store for them in the ease of preparation and the economy, but most of all in the better flavor and appetizing dishes that may be prepared with Quaker Macaroni. Quaker Spaghetti also is enriched with milk and is stocked by leading food stores throughout Sedalia and Central Missouri.

No Need To Cover Them

Covering dishes of cooked or left-over foods for normal storage in the family refrigerator is a thing of the past for this attractive homemaker, who is proudly showing her guests her new "Cold Wall" type Frigidaire. This refrigerator is a new invention of General Motors in which cooling is accomplished by radiation and refrigerated walls. Using low temperatures and high atmospheric moisture, without the usual moisture-robbing air circulation, which is not necessary with this method of refrigeration, foods even in uncovered dishes are preserved fresh, full-colored and full-flavored for long periods. A special meat tender in this refrigerator provides just the right combination of cold temperature, moisture and air circulation to keep fresh meats in that condition.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the East Broadway Christian church Wednesday night
 when Miss Dorothy Vera Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carson, 1613 South Vermont avenue, became the bride of Rev. R.
 J. Rains, pastor of that church,
 a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F.
 Rains, of Eldon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robt.
 O. Beeman, of Ottawa, Kas., in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The church was prettily decorated with snapdragons, palms, ferns and smilax, and on either side of the altar, were seven lighted candles.

Before the ceremony, Rev. Orville Wright, of Marshall, sang,
 "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell,
 "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly." During the ceremony, Miss Catherine Garman at the organ played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." Miss Garman played Lohengrin's Wedding March as a recessional, and Mendelsohn's March for the processional.

The bride, wearing a navy blue dress, and a gardenia on her shoulder, was given in marriage by her uncle who led her to the altar, where she met the bridegroom and his attendants. Her bridesmaids were Miss Laverna
 Trueman and Miss Jessie May

Trueman, and the bridegroom's attendants were Donald and Richard Trueman, sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Trueman of South Prospect avenue.

The bride was reared in Sedalia and has many friends here.
 The bridegroom came to Sedalia a year ago to assume the pastorate of the church in which he was married. He received his education at the Manhattan College and the Kansas State University.

The couple will reside at the Ben Carson home, 812 East Tenth street. They will be given a reception at the church tonight.

Out of town guests who attended the ceremony were: Miss Alice Irene Oliver, Slater; Mrs.
 Henry Shumann and Donna Jean, Cole Camp; Rev. and Mrs. Orville Wright, Marshall; Rev. and Mrs. Robt. O. Beeman, Ottawa,
 Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Shull,
 Kansas City, Kas.; Mr. and Mrs.
 Harry McCune, La Monte; Mr.
 and Mrs. Wallace Yost and Miss Adda Yost, Jefferson City, and Mrs. Hugh Smith, Long Beach, Calif.

Members of the Helen G. Steele
 Music Club chorus met Wednesday afternoon at the Heard Memorial club house for a very satisfactory rehearsal, it was reported by Mrs. E. F. Yancey, director.

The chorus is preparing for a choral program to be presented later in the season.

Mrs. A. H. Bratton is chairman of the club's chorus committee.

Popular Number For Overture

The opening number of the concert to be given next Tuesday night by the Sedalia Symphony orchestra, with Abe Rosenthal as conductor and Basil Gauntlett, concert pianist, of Columbia, as soloist, will be the overture to "Der Freischutz," by Carl von Weber.

Program annotations follow:
 Carl Maria von Weber, 1786-1826, a German composer, is famed as the founder of the romantic school of opera of which Wagner was the great leader.

The overture "Der Freischutz" is a favorite number of its class in the concert room as well as in the opera house; a masterpiece of brilliant and descriptive instrumentation.

The atmosphere of the opera is that which pervades the sylvan life of Germany. Into the peace of the woods the French horns ("forest horns" as the Germans call them) usher us at once into this mood with the hymn which they sing, which follows a few introductory measures. But we no sooner yield to the caress of this mood than enters the supernatural element which invents
 the tragic portion of the story.
 Ominous drum beats under a dissonant tremble of the strings, deep tones of the clarinets and a plangent declamatory phrase of the cellos tell us of the emotions of the hero when he feels himself deserted by Heaven; the principal subject of the overture (Molto Vivace) proclaims his terror at the thought that he has fallen into the power of the Evil
 One. The jubilant second theme gives voice to the happiness of the heroine and the triumph of love and virtue, which is the outcome of the drama.

Casts Chosen For S-C Plays

The Smith-Cotton junior and senior classes have selected definite casts for the interclass plays which will be presented March 31. The students in the junior class cast are: Jane Bosworth, Ruth Aldwell, J. C. Rayl, Atwell Bohling, and Charles Bates.

The students in the senior class cast are: Harriet Courtney, Jack McCullough, Henrietta Lamm,
 Norma Jean Kahrs, Shirley
 Green, Alberta Todd, Ernest
 Slatinsky, and Mary Louise Zink.

The student coaching the senior is Dorothy Banks, and those coaching those in the junior class are Willouise Cougig and Virginia Scruton.

Wednesday afternoon at 3:40 there was a special "pep" assembly to promote the ticket sales in the school auditorium.

From each class there were several students to show what their class is doing in the way of selling play tickets.

Those students taking part in the eighth grade skit were: Vera Mae Gross, Betty Jean Spurlock, Sonny Boyd and Bob Riley.

Bob King announced the freshman activities.

In the sophomore skit were:
 Dorothy Herrick, Mary Jane
 Scott, Louise Whitbeck, Frank
 Long, Dave and Bob Robinson,
 Carter and William Scotten, Harold Lewis, Lou Anamosa, Dave Glassburn, Jimmy Myers, and Jack Kreisley.

In the junior class: Jack Men-efee, Oscar Lee Scott, Bill Beh-en, John Donaldson, Kenneth Dick, and Forest Heacock.

In the senior class: Paul Lingle,
 Bob Wild, Elaine Devine, Cecil
 Hill, Quinton Studer, Dorothy Banks, and Jack McCullough.

Musterole is NOT "just a salve." It's a "counter-irritant" containing good old-fashioned remedies for distress of colds—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor and other helpful ingredients.

That's why it gets such fine results—better than the old-fashioned mustard skin, stimulates, warms and soothes and quickly helps to relieve local congestion

TIME AND PROGRESS MARCHES ON

So swift are the shifting scenes of Progress that we can not visualize the achievements of tomorrow. A glance backward reveals the wonderful advancements that have been made in the short span of only a few years.

The Food industry has kept pace with the rapid march of Progress.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are no longer seasonal items, but by means of modern transportation they are available almost every day of the year.

From the gardens of Florida, Texas and California, we feature fresh Radishes, Onions, Head and Leaf Lettuce, Cauliflower, Cabbage, Celery, Green Peppers, Green Beans, Beets and Spinach.

These healthful foods are so reasonable in price you can well afford to include a generous assortment in your grocery order each day.

Oranges, Lemons, Grapefruit and Bananas are indispensable on our daily menu and are very low in price. Include these also in your order.

Our delicious meats should make your menu complete—and satisfying. Fresh oysters and fish add to variety that our market affords.

Butter took a drop of a cents a pound since last week, but most prices of staple food remain unchanged.

Flower and Garden Seeds are now on display awaiting Spring planting. Look them over.

Cranium Crackers

Can you perform as a Missing Persons Bureau, locating six people in the following four statements?

1. A U. S. senator and an aviator-explorer whose last names could describe a familiar winged creature.
2. A movie actor, now in New York, whose last name could be a military command and is rather seasonal.
3. A former Notre Dame football star and his namesake who wrote dramas.
4. An actress whose last name suggests a noted university.

Raising a Family

Discipline When No One Else Is Around

Anna brought in the dessert before she had cleared all the things from the dining table. Mrs. Jones did not say anything at the time, but spoke quietly, "I shall tell her tomorrow."

"Why don't you tell her now?" said Jane. "She will forget."

"No," remarked Mrs. Jones, "I find it best not to correct a mistake when there are other people around. She will take it better if I speak to her alone."

Another time Anna put too much pepper in the soup. This time it was Mr. Jones who complained. "Sh," said his wife, "be careful. I can talk to her about it tomorrow better. Then she will be less nervous. I'll use tact. I'll say: 'By the way, Anna, that was very good chowder, but it seems a shame to spoil the flavor by too much seasoning. We are not as fond of hot soups as some people. So, if you will remember, I am sure we shall enjoy our meals more.'"

There were several occasions of this kind. Anna was more than willing to learn, but she was very fearful about trying new recipes. When Mrs. Jones waited to tell her nicely about mistakes at a time she was not under a strain she did not feel that she had failed. And she remembered very well, indeed.

This article is not about Anna. It is really about Jane Jones, who was just beginning to feel grown-up and very sensitive about her blunders.

Her mother corrected her one day before some relatives. Another time she told Jane not to interrupt when Mrs. Evans, a caller, was speaking.

Daughter Unhappy

Mrs. Jones gave Jane a good going-over, eventually, about telling some family affair that was confidential. Jane was worried the minute the words had passed her lips and she was at the point when any reference to it doubled her shame. She was trying to do things right, but the constant correcting she was getting at the wrong moments were making her very unhappy.

She said to her mother, "Mummy, you said that you got better results when you waited a day to speak to Anna. I wonder if you would do it with me?"

Mrs. Jones was very surprised. It had never occurred to her that the matching of the blood have anything to do with having children?

Now the only figures relating to the blood that might apply to this question are those having to do with agglutination of the blood corpuscles and those concerned with the Wassermann test.

In the case of the Wassermann test, which is the basic test for syphilis, the figures would probably have been given as three plus and four plus.

While people with either three plus or four plus Wassermann tests could have children, they ought not to have any until every possible attempt had been made to cure the syphilis.

Children born of syphilitic parents are likely to show the results of such infection. In many instances, the presence of such infection, not controlled by proper treatment, would probably result in loss of the child before the natural time of birth.

As I have frequently explained in these columns, each of us may be classified into various groups according to the reaction of our red blood cells to the serum or fluid matter of the blood of other persons. With various classifications there are various numbers of groups. While these groups or classifications may be inherited to some extent, they are not apparently related to fertility or sterility.

Thus people of various classifications may marry and give birth to children. It is possible, however, by the use of these classifications, to determine under some circumstances the paternity of a child. The group are also important in relationship to the transfusion of blood.

Obviously one could not transfuse the blood of one person into the veins of another if the blood corpuscles of one would be agglutinated or clumped together by the fluid material of the blood of the other.

The world's finest turf is grown on the coast of Great Britain. It costs from $10 to $15 per 100 pieces, is used for laying golfing greens and is known as "Cumberland."

Difference in Blood Groups No Bar to Having Children

Many extraordinary letters come to all of those who write regularly for the newspapers. Often we wonder just how many readers gather the full importance of the advice that is regularly offered. Here for example is a letter that just came to this column:

Dear Doctor: Can a husband and wife have children under these conditions: Wife's blood is three, husband's blood is four. Do they both have to match or does

Stories in Stamps

Were They America's First Astronomers?

THEY were studying the stars over America as early as the beginning of the Christian era. They studied them from the heights of a towering observatory, which was but one evidence of perhaps the greatest aboriginal civilization the new world has ever known, the Mayan.

Exploring centuries later in the ruins of the great Mayan city, Chichen Itza, situated in Yucatan, archeologists have been able to reassemble this early observatory stone by stone. Actually it is a tower within a tower built on a double platform of solid rock.

At the tower's top the Mayans had built a small chamber. Through it a stone-lined passage-way looks due west to the horizon line. Scientists, making careful observations over a period of years, found that the diagonal from the inner right jamb to the outer left jamb is the line on which the sun sets on March 21 and Sept. 23, the dates of spring and autumn equinoxes. Still other studies showed sightings indicating the time of the summer solstice, June 22 each year.

Thus the Mayans displayed remarkable astronomical knowledge. They were very probably America's first star gazers. The ruins of Chichen Itza now being partially restored are shown above on a current Mexican stamp, one of five values.

Came Into World To Save Lost

Dr. Odom, the evangelist and leader in the revival meetings now in progress in the First Methodist church, read for the lesson a part of the fifteenth chapter of Luke dealing with the losses. He said that the reason Christ came into the world was because there were lost people and He came to seek and to save them. Christ used those illustrations in the parables to show that the deepest desire of God was not for material things but for those matters dealing with the spirits of men. The speaker used the illustration taken from that second loss which was a sheep and showed how a little lamb of a sheep just gradually wanders away, by eating its way from the flock, until it finds itself lost and in the midst of dangerous circumstances, and unless some care is taken to bring the lost one home, it will be forever among those who wander into unknown fields of sin and wrong.

Dr. Odom made mention of the fact that sometimes losses occur in the home itself, that is that parents get so careless and indifferent toward their children, and pay so little attention to their associates and friends that they wander away and become lost to the finer things of life and soon find themselves outside the fold of the church. He said that sometimes even pastors and ministers grow indifferent to the needs of his flock that many wander away in far fields of life and activity, and that church school teachers are apt to become careless toward children and young people who are enrolled in their classes that before they realize it those students are gone and maybe never can be won back to Christ and the church, and finally he said that many times people become so careless and indifferent about their own personal lives and lose interest in the church and in the righteous things, matters that pertain to his personal relationship to God.

• Clarksburg

(By Mrs. Maude Albin)
Mrs. L. C. Sharpe, of Bolivar, Mo., arrived Saturday for an extended visit with friends here. She stopped over in Warrensburg for a week's visit on her way here. Mrs. Sharpe was a resident many years here before moving to Bolivar.

L. J. Stephens, who has been very sick the past two weeks with the flu is slowly improving. His wife has been quite sick, also, but is able to be up some now. Quite a bit of moving has been going on the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wells moved from their town property to a farm he purchased recently north of Lakota. Mrs. Wells' mother, Mrs. Alpha Toler, moved into the home they vacated. Mr. and Mrs. Fordyce Dooley, moved to the property of Mrs. Toler in north Clarksburg. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Yarnell moved from the James Evans farm, two miles southwest of town to the property of Mrs. Mollie Wingate. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Heath, who have been living on their farm about three miles southeast of Clarksburg traded their farm for property here belonging to William Carter and each are moving to their respective places.

Elmer Jones and daughter are moving from Main street to the Muri property in north Clarksburg.

Lawrence and George Keiser, who live northwest of town, were saddened by the death of their mother, Mrs. John Kaiser, whose home was near Buncheon. She died Saturday, March 11, and the afternoon of the same day their father passed away. Both deaths were due pneumonia.

Mrs. Mollie Albin and Mrs. Geo. Albin are among those ill at their homes here. Rev. H. V. Nelson, pastor of the Baptist church, who resigned a few weeks ago, preached his last sermon there Sunday and left Monday for Dallas, Texas, where he goes to work with his brother, a contractor and builder. Mrs. Nelson and children will remain here until school closes.

Mrs. Stella Allee of Warrensburg, and Mrs. Mamie Selken of Smithton, were here Thursday looking after business matters.

Bess Irene Clark of Jefferson City, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. F. B. Clark.

Miss Louise Nelson, who is attending Southwest Baptist College at Bolivar, Mo., and Fred Hurst motored from there Sunday morning and spent the day with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. V. Nelson and family.

Mrs. Winnie Hill, who has been ill the past two weeks, is unimproved. A number from this place attended the funeral of Charles Reynolds at California Friday. Mr. Reynolds was a resident of Clarksburg several years, also of California before going to Kansas City where his death occurred. After

Mrs. Leah Snodgrass of Kansas City, was called here Friday by the death of her father, Douglas Birdsong. The funeral was held at Mt. Pleasant church.

Andrew Cain, of Kansas City, visited his father, J. H. Cain, over Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Cain, who recently underwent three operations at the Ravensway clinic in Boonville, is gradually improving and is able to be up and walk about a little.

Another Nudge To McReynolds

JEFFERSON CITY, March 16.—(P)—The gubernatorial boost for Senator Allen McReynolds (D), Carthage, got another nudge here last night during a dinner which the Senator and Mrs. Reynolds gave for 35 Jasper County residents now in Jefferson City.

"I am perfectly serious," former State Senator A. L. McCawley told his host, "when I say that we are looking forward to another reunion in 1941 with you as our host in the big, white house on North Madison street"—an obvious reference to the executive mansion.

Smiling, Senator McReynolds said, "we will now proceed with the next order of business," and continued to introduce those present.

They included J. D. James, chairman of the Public Service

Czech Role At Fair Is In Doubt

NEW YORK, March 16.—(P)—The $1,000,000 role which Czechoslovakia was to have played in the New York world's fair remained in doubt today in the wake of that nation's breakup under pressure by Germany.

Dr. Josef E. Mraena, Czechoslovak consul general in New York, said no instructions had been received from Prague regarding participation in the fair.

The Czech pavilion, including a large restaurant and outdoor beer garden, is almost completed. Germany is not represented at the fair.
